The Warren Housing Authority continues to progress towards meeting its mission of promoting adequate and affordable housing, economic opportunity and a suitable living environment free from discrimination.

Due to the scarcity of rental units, this Authority has not requested additional vouchers. We continue to provide voucher mobility counseling and conduct an on-going outreach program for potential voucher landlords.

The Warren Housing Authority recently completed a project that included replacing sidewalks and parking lots for the betterment of the seniors and disabled who reside at Kickemuit Village.

We are currently in the process of replacing wallpaper and painting stairwells in Project 003 and replacing carpeting in Project 001 and 003.

The Warren Housing Authority SEMAP score for FYE was very favorable indicating a customer satisfaction in our goal to improve the quality of housing.

Although we have not received the PHAS score, this Authority is confident that we are meeting our goal to improve in areas of public housing management.
